PUBLIC PARTICIPATION

Deb Hickman directed a question to Attorney Budicak regarding the condemned trailers owned by Cindy Adams for sale, she keeps taking for sale sign up and down, this property is adjacent to Ms. Hickman's property and was condemned due to deplorable living conditions and a faulty sewer system. She would like to know how one would go about possibly purchasing this property regarding finding out about liens, back taxes. As the seller Ms. Adams is responsible for disclosing any such information as to back taxes or liens to buyer. The tax history could be obtained from the tax collector, any liens could be obtained from the township, school district and county – you would need the parcel number and the owners name to look this information up. Michael Zachodni would just like to say something positive with all the negativity in the world. He saw on Facebook that Pulaski Township was commended for the great job of snow plowing during the most recent snowstorm we had. He stated it was posted under Craig Dietz's Facebook page and it was in no way influenced by the Zachodni family.
