PUBLIC PARTICIPATION

Gary Pavlinich has nothing for this evening. Bill Thomas has nothing for this evening. Beth Bennett has a few things; she would like to know when the ruts in her yard will be fixed? Mrs. Griffith will call Mitchell Pappen again, Mr. Zachodni will also call again. Mr. Zachodni also mentioned that during the big windstorm we had, there were several pieces of cardboard that blew all over the roads and such and Mrs. Griffith had called Mr. Pappen and he said it would be cleaned up. Mrs. Bennett says she doesn't like picking up cardboard but when she picks it up, she throws it back in the road. Mrs. Bennett also made a request to the police; she would like more police presence throughout the day/evening. Two other residents, Dawn Mohrbacher and Rhonda West agree that the township needs more police coverage. Chief Ron Walton assured them he would increase the coverage. Dawn Mohrbacher has nothing for this evening. Rhonda West has nothing for this evening.

CORRESPONDENCE
