PUBLIC PARTICIPATION

Gary Pavlinich has a question for Attorney Budicak, when a supervisor abstains from a vote? Are they then allowed to vote after abstaining? Attorney Budicak replies with yes, they are then permitted to vote in an instance of a deadlock, there are many examples of this, but yes, it is legal. Deb Hickman has nothing for tonight. Sharon Buckholz would like to ask for tax exoneration for properties bought from repository list. Mr. Zachodni assured her this would occur during new business for the meeting. Rhonda West would like to commend the road department for the wonderful job they did on roads with so much snow. Samantha Hall would like to say she is pleased with the job done on the roads as well. Also, she would like to know what is going on with the police contract and will we be keeping NBPD? Mr. Zachodni and Attorney Budicak both state the negotiations are still going on.
